21st ANNUAL GENERATIONS DAY

The Highland Oaks PTSA has designated Friday, December 2, 2011 as Generations Day. On this day, we honor everyone chosen as a "special person" in the life of a Highland Oaks student. This person is anyone (parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, cousin, neighbor or friend) who is significant in a child's life. During classroom visits, teachers will invite guests who wish to speak to do so. The students would love to hear your memories and stories. Please see classroom visit schedule above for visit time by grade level.

Calling all fifth grade parents!

Share Your Highland Oaks Memories

It is time to plan for the fifth grade yearbook. If you have pictures from Highland Oaks events that you would like to include in our yearbook, please follow the instructions below to upload them:

- Log in by entering project # 216509 and password "eagle".
- Enter your contact info and click Next button
- You may upload up to 5 photos each time on the Upload Wizard screen.
- The required image format is JPEG. 1 MB minimum, 8 MB maximum.
- You may start uploading photos now.

For any questions, please contact Narma Ali (626) 676-0339 (narmaali@aol.com) or Yiren Wang (626) 272-3535 (yirenw@gmail.com).

HOPTSA President Posting

I am looking forward to seeing the friends and family of our students flock to the school this Friday for Generation's Day. I know the children love to share their school experience with their loved ones. So invite caregivers, grandparents, siblings, anyone who holds a meaningful position in your child's life to share a few valuable moments with them in the classroom this Friday. It will be a memorable day!
